THANK YOU!

My Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. John XXIII,

This move was nowhere in my plans! Three years only! But, like they say, "Tell God your plans..." Nevertheless, what a blessed existence you, the family of St. John XXIII, have offered me these past three years. Thank You Very Much.

The love of God has nourished me, through my ministry to you and with you: Baptisms; of course the Eucharist; Confirmations; Confessions; Weddings; yes and even Anointing of the Sick and Funerals. All for the Love of Jesus.

I will remember you and cherish my memories of you forever. Thank you very much again, for three years of faith, Hope and Love.

May God continue to bless you.
With utmost Love and Thanksgiving, Fr. Denis

WORD OF OUR PATRON SAINT JOHN XXIIIThe Humble Heart

The Son of God, who came to earth to teach men, left us no instruction clearer and more precise than this: we are to be humble in heart, mind, speech, and behaviour. This humility is often expressed in silence; this gentleness may seem weakness. But, on the contrary, it is strength of character and dignity of life; it is of great importance, even for the future of peaceful relations between men. Success is always assured and granted to the humble in heart. The man who has no humility, who yields to the temptations of presumptuous arrogance, is doomed to live bitter days, to find himself before long empty-handed, and to live years of great unhappiness. This strength of character finds its most glorious expression in the spirit of sacrifice to the Lord's will, for the purification of souls. Taken from the book, Prayers and Devotions From Pope John XXIII, His personal thoughts for every day of the year.
